From Fr. Mark's Desk:

Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time: "Between us and you a great chasm is established to prevent anyone from crossing who might wish to go from our side to yours or from your side to ours."

Growing up as a child in the 1960's, I was, like many, interested in all the things of outer space. Watching the moon landing on our black and white TV seems like yesterday. Books, magazines, TV shows, and movies reflected the overall popularity of Space, 'the final frontier!' The intrigue centered around the unknown and how far away the unknown seemed to be. Yet, as we drew closer to the moon, space seemed closer than ever. Maybe the universe was a little smaller than we thought. Today, the pursuit continues and who knows where it will be in another 100 years.

The universe is a great analogy for the chasm which exists between what we know about life and what we do not know. There is more that we do not know than we think. In life, we experience this in our relationship between heaven and earth. We live on earth but believe in heaven. There can seem to be a chasm between heaven and earth.

Ultimately, God is the connector. The more we know and trust God, the more attainable the 'final frontier' can seem. It is the trusting soul, who believes and has faith that can patiently wait for the moment when God will bridge the gap.

In our Gospel, Lazarus has the awareness of the God he needs, to know that God will save him and carry him across the chasm. The Rich Man doesn't focus on the chasm much, if at all. The Rich Man isn't concerned because he believes he can bridge that chasm himself.

The only connector is God. Jesus is the source of our salvation. The great connection for Catholics is in the Eucharist. Heaven and earth come together in this great and wonderful sacrament. "The one who eats this bread, will live forever", Jesus says.

Awareness of the 'great frontier' can fill our imagination with wonderful dreams. There is a final frontier for believers and that frontier is union with God. The dreaming and imagining and hoping begins each day. It has its grand finale when we are called home, by the only one who can bridge the chasm, God.

Have a good week!
Fr. Mark Walter

"My child, remember that you received what was good during your lifetime while Lazarus likewise received what was bad, but now he is comforted here, whereas you are tormented. Moreover between us and you a great chasm is established…" (LUKE 16:25-28)

When God created the world He declared that it was good and He gave it to all mankind for us to enjoy. However, over the years we have created a chasm between those who have great gifts and those who do not. In today's Gospel we see, that with our own generosity, we must bridge that gap between those who have much and those who have little or we may find ourselves on the wrong side of the chasm in the next life. ©archchicago.org

Chalkfest and Hawktoberfest were last week and they were a huge success. A BIG THANK YOU to Mrs. Georgelos for her 11 years of service to Chalktoberfest! Every year it got better and better! Mrs. Georgelos leaves us as her last daughter graduates and we are so grateful to her.
