From Fr. Mark's Desk:

Second Sunday of Lent: "This is my beloved Son, hear him".

"Every once and so often, something so touching, so incandescent, so alive transfigures the human face that it's almost beyond bearing". (Frederick Buechner)

I have found this to be true many times in life. That on certain days, you are with someone, and it may be the best or worst day of their life. You stand with them, or they stand with you. In those moments there is something that transcends the moment we are in, we know we are part of something eternal. In the Transfiguration, an altering experience occurs. The observers will never be the same. This experience from Luke's Gospel, is a holy moment and we as readers and listeners are allowed to share in the moment. Hopefully we have all had a moment or two like this in our life. The birth of a child, the death of an elder, the rising of the sun, the first snowflake or the first robin, can be a moment of intimacy we are allowed to experience with God. In the journey of Lent, what do you hope to experience from the Lord? What moment of intimacy do you long to experience. For me, it is living in the moment I am in. I am always planning or thinking about the next thing, forgetting to be in the present. Living in the moment is probably the best way to plan ahead anyway! What do you want the Lord to do for you? 'This my beloved Son, hear him.' What is he saying to you?

~Lately, people have mentioned to me their prayerful experiences in the Adoration Chapel. I love hearing that prayer and reflection are an important part of the lives of our parish family. Yet, many have still to visit the chapel at all. This Lent, consider a visit. The hours are Monday-Friday, 8am-4pm. Even a short time in God's presence can change your life.

~Stations of the Cross are prayed every Friday at 6:30pm in St. Linus Church. Please join us as we walk with the Lord.

~ Lenten Tuesday adoration will resume this week from 5-7pm in St. Linus Church.

~Please consider attending our Parish Mission, Come to the Water, on Wednesday April 9th and Thursday April 10th at 7pm at Our Lady of the Ridge Church. I believe you will find it to be a prayerful experience.

Have a Happy St. Patrick and St. Joseph Day this week!!

Fr. Mark Walter
